The Centre for Addiction and Mental Health (CAMH) is Canada’s leading psychiatric and addiction teaching hospital and a world-leader in brain research. CAMH Foundation raises awareness and funds to support our hospital’s delivery of high quality care, research, education and policy development which promote the mental health of people, our hospitals’ delivery of high quality care, and wider societal awareness and funds to support research, education and policy development.

Flowers in the Mist, c. 2011
Acrylic on canvas
Liz Mallette
For Liz Mallette, putting brush to canvas lets her express herself in ways that she can never find words for. As a member of Workman Arts, a proud partner of CAMH that helps artists living with mental illness and addiction issues, Liz has access to programs that help refine her skills as well as opportunities to exhibit her work.

www.supportcamh.ca