

CAMH Foundation inspires philanthropy that enables leading-edge care, research and education at The Centre for Addiction and Mental Health (CAMH)—Canada's leading hospital for mental health. CAMH has been at the leading edge of breakthroughs in mental health research for over 20 years, with each new finding giving rise to new methodologies, treatments and hope. Together, we are working to change the way society perceives and treats mental illness in Canada and around the world.

Artwork by:

emma allen